704.03, Flexible Delineators

Qualification Requests

The information that is sent in with the request must show that the material is in compliance with the material requirements.

Qualification Samples

The requirements for the information that is received for QPL prequalification are as follows.
The producer will submit a packet showing the product

- Meets the Material Requirements listed below.

Material Requirements

Requirements may be found in the Standard Specifications for Road and Bridge Construction subsection 704.03, the Supplemental specifications to Montana Standard Specifications subsection 704.03 or contract Special Provision. Requirements for the steel used may be found in the Standard Specifications for Road and Bridge Construction subsection 106.09, the Supplemental specifications to Montana Standard Specifications subsection 106.09.

Qualification Process

Once the information is received it will be looked at to see if it meets the Departments needs. If it is determined to meet our needs it will be put on the QPL.