

403.02B Backer Rod

Qualification Requests

Provide the Department with a completed request form and a laboratory test report showing that the material is in compliance with the Department's material requirements.

Material Requirements

Backer rod must meet the requirements found in the Standard Specifications for Road and Bridge Construction Subsection 403.02B "Backer Rod" and the corresponding supplemental specifications.

Qualification Procedures

Submit a 3 foot section of each type Backer Rod to be considered along with test results from an independent laboratory.

The Department will test each sample according to the tests outlined in subsection "403.02B Backer Rod". Materials not meeting the requirements will be rejected. Materials meeting the requirements will be placed on the QPL.